SCOPE

The individual is a unique phenomenon, the sum of many dimensions.
Through compliment and contrast, the total person experiences the agony of despair, the ecstasy of joy, and the intensity of competitive achievement.
These facets and angles reflect the composite of the total scope.

Fulfillment of interests pursued through various activities

DIMENSION

Perfection in anything, including interest or talent is an absolute impossibility. Simply to strive for such an ideal is a tremendous accomplishment in itself. Though perfection is ideal, we settle for temporary goals that are more easily obtainable in the immediate future. Athletic, academic, social, cultural and religious activities are all areas in which we toil to reach the ultimate. If dedication and pride are present in our various activities, though perfection is impossible, the results we attain will always exceed expected standards.

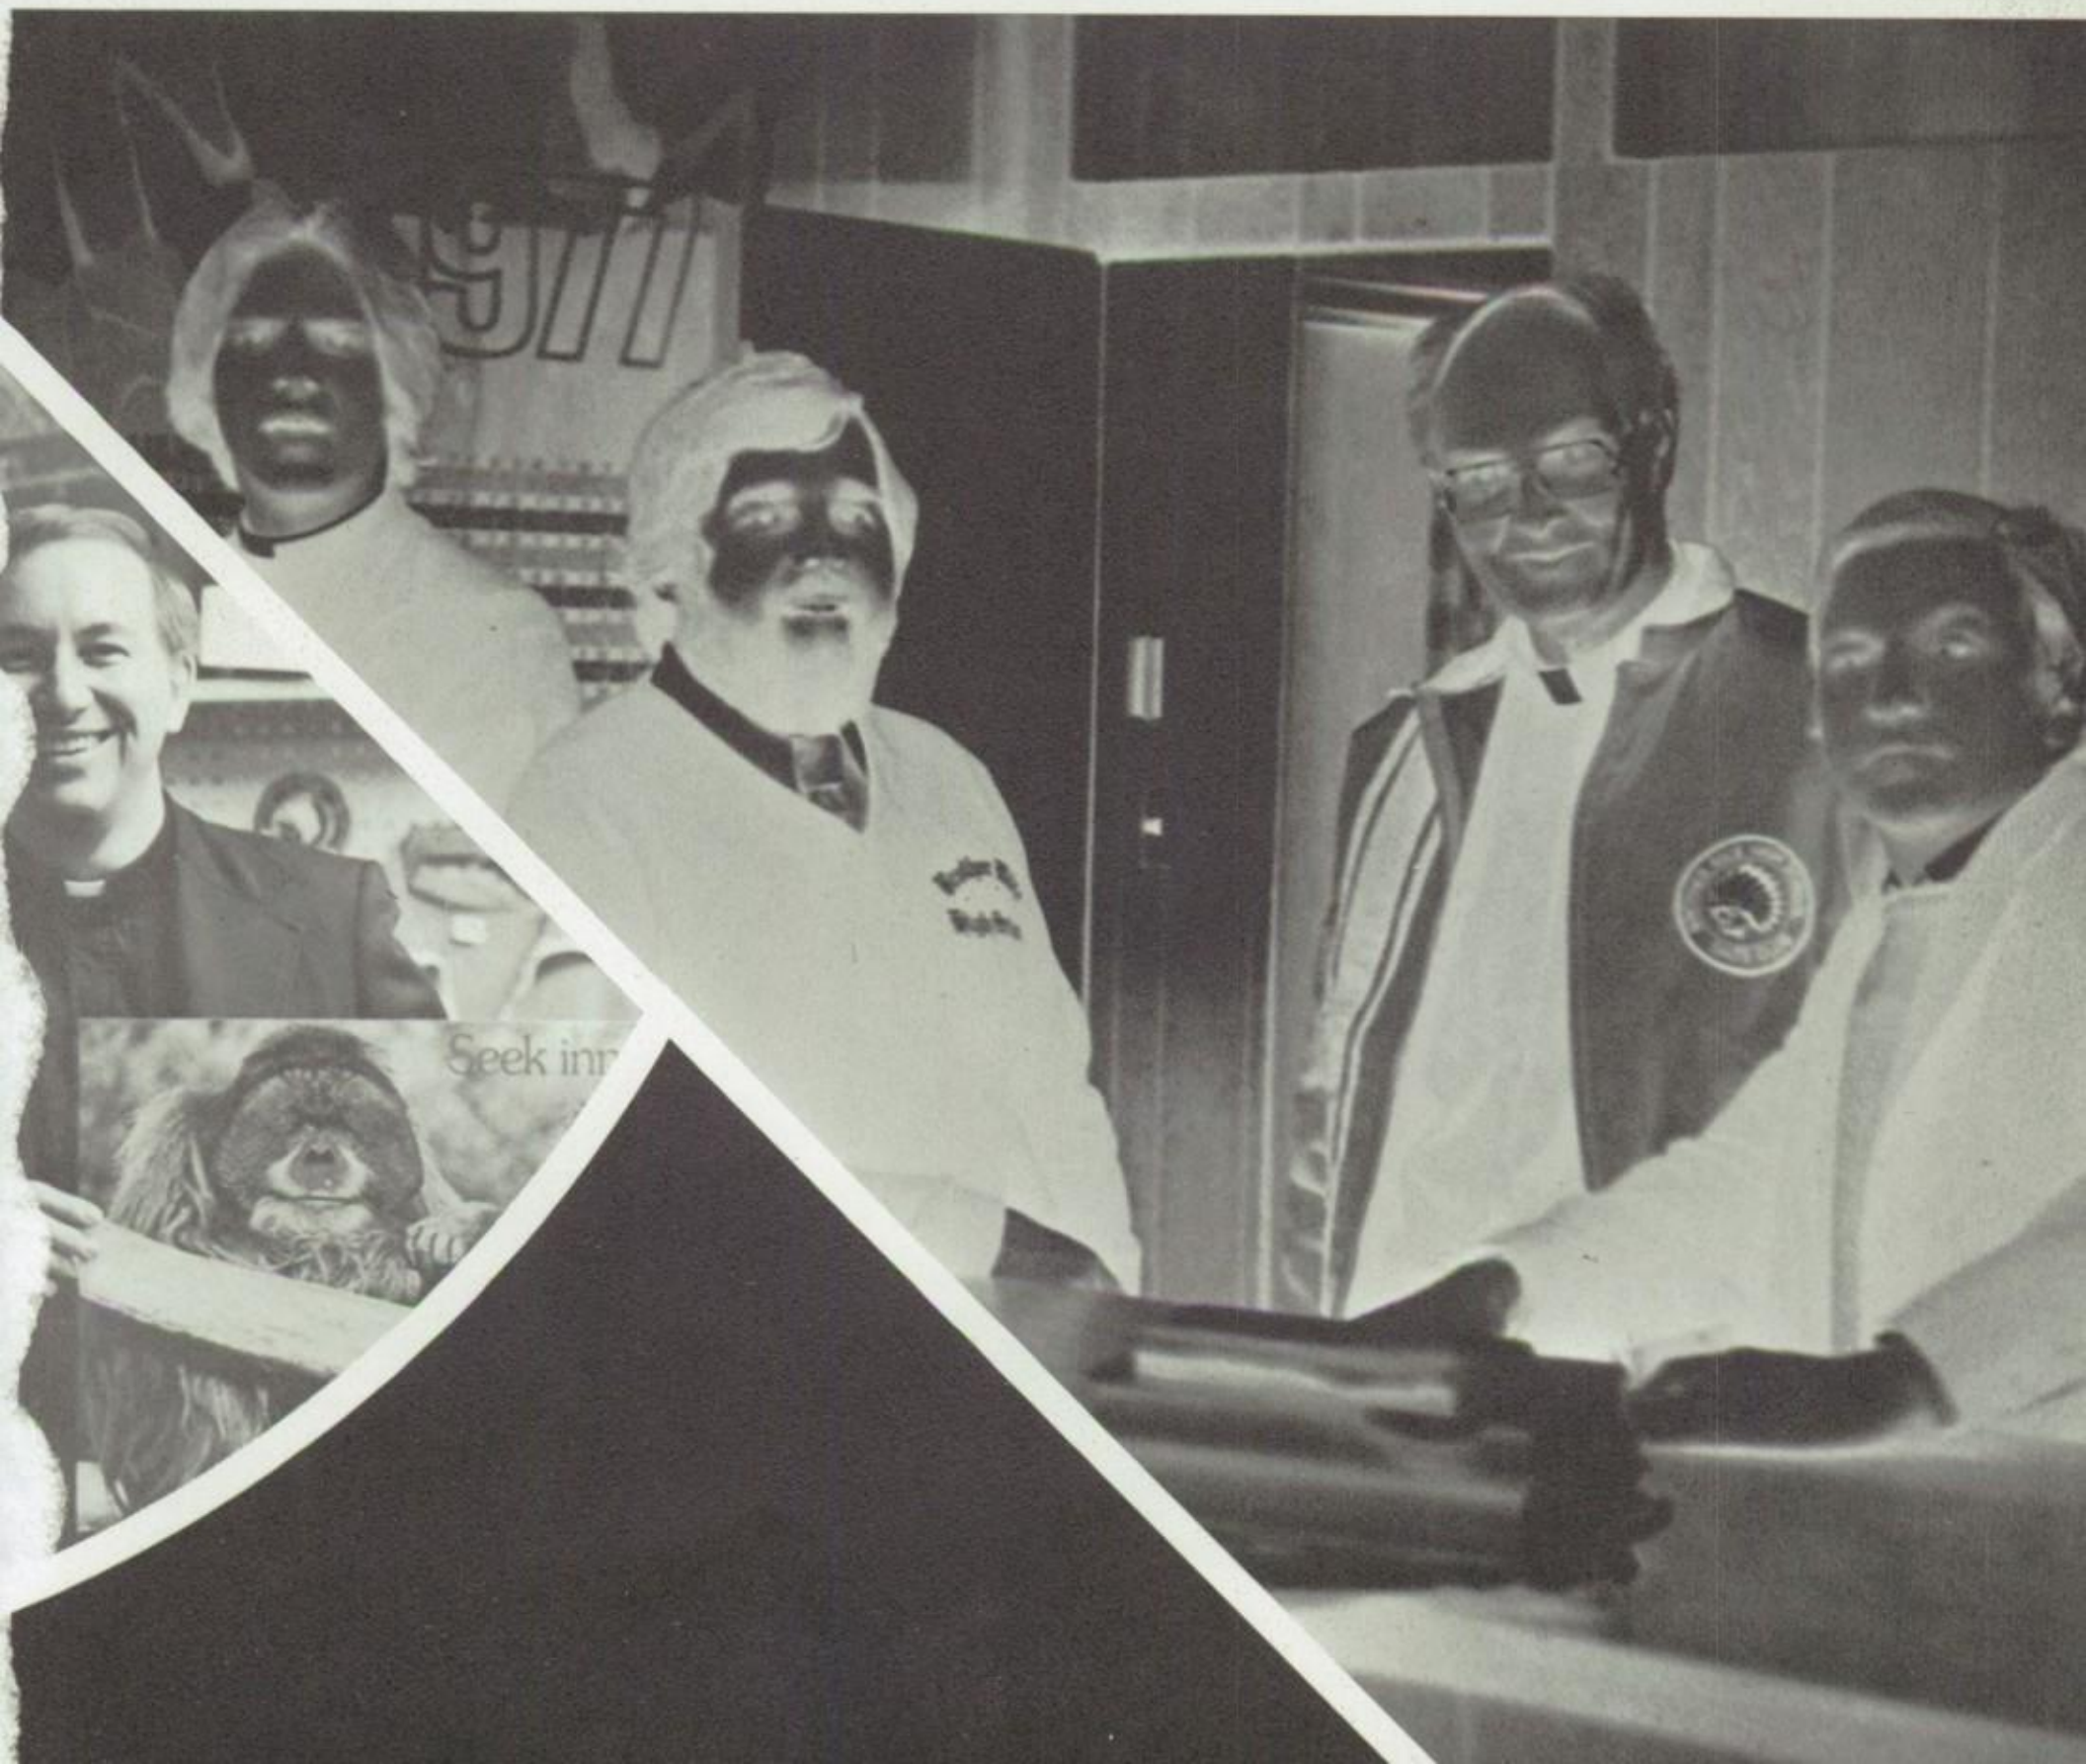
FACULTY



Faculty Generates Student Interest for Academic, Extra Curricular Activities

One of the basic elements in the building of student character is the influence of this year's faculty upon them. This influence is common to the student-teacher relationship both in and out of the classroom. In addition to providing worthwhile education, the faculty sets spiritual and moral examples for the students to follow.

As always the introduction of new faculty members brings on new ideas and innovations. A general trend of teachers at Brother Rice has been one of involvement in education as well as extracurricular activities. The new faculty members enthusiastically take part in this trend. As a result of unfortunate occurences at the opening of the school year, there was a greater shift among the teaching staff than was previously expected.

Without the guidance of a good administrative staff, the faculty would seem to be at a loss. This year the administrative department is to be commended in its fine service to the Brother Rice community.

The administration staff in coordination with a teaching staff, has succeeded in playing a most important role in the total picture.

Brother's Community Life

What makes Brother Rice different from any other school are the Brothers. The students rarely sees a Brother in his community life. The students only visualize the Brothers as teachers and not often informally. When not teaching or helping students, the Brothers are the slickest card players in the world. They lounge around just like everyone else, spending their free time with their noses jammed in educational books and magazines, refreshing their intellectual minds so that they can assist the students with their life struggles. They work around Rice daily, improving their lawn and garden and repainting and remodeling the interior of their home. Their religious life consists of rising every morning at 6:00 for Mass and morning prayer. They also have evening prayers which help them put up with all the problems brought to them by today's complex students & strengthen the spiritual dimension of their lives.

THIS PAGE: *Above right, masses are held in the school for the brothers as often as possible. Center right, The two women closest to the brother's hearts are the two housekeepers for the monastery. In Memoriam

The Brother Rice library displays many trophies which the Debating Team, headed by Sister Rena Geary, I.H.M., of happy memory, brought home.

Sr. Rena taught English and conducted an Independent Study Program for three years. Her philosophy — be yourself at all times; having examined your convictions, be true to them; believe in yourself, live out your ideals and forget what others might think of you — touched deeply the lives of many students.

At the time of her wake, the perfect tribute paid Sr. Rena was the large number of alumni present. Many of them spoke with great admiration of the vision she had shared with them, of her great personal interest in each, and of her generously shared time, even on weekends, with anyone who needed her.

In classrooms and hall, in library and teacher's lounge, her spirit remains. It is here at Brother Rice that Sister Rena found her own fulfillment, peace of mind and heart. This is high praise for our school in view of the fact that Sr. Rena had studied at the Sarbonne in Paris and taught at the University of Bhagdad as well as schools in Europe and America. Brother Rice, to show it love and appreciation for Sister Rena Geary, has placed a plaque in the school chapel in remembrance of her and her spirit.

Mister Kenneth Robert Morris was a well-liked, talented man. His talents, developed in industry and utilized-in the classroom, enabled him to present interesting classes in chemistry, physics, and electronics. The students in these classes truly appreciated his concern and individual assistance in the midst of a demanding environment.

Mister Morris was a gentle and happy man. He was always truthful in expressing his own thoughts and respectfully listened to those of others. He was someone you could talk to, someone you could bounce an idea off and expect a straight-forward response. He was a person who made you feel comfortable in his presence.

He was a man that you felt you already knew when you met him for the first time. He is a man that we, here at Brother Rice, will never forget.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Diligence, Hard Work Pay Off for Rice Band

Pride. The band is filled with it. From marching season to the Berkley Christmas Parade from concerts to graduation the band shows it.

On the field timely events yielded outstanding performances. An election year tribute proved a success. As well the band took part in the annual U. of M. Band Day, which had a Bicentennial theme to it, and featured guest conductor Benny Goodman.

Being the largest school organization and having a strong upperclass, the band put forth sensational performances on stage.

Projects such as the Michigan Solo and Ensemble Competition, the select Michigan Honors Band, the annual band banquet, the purchases of percussion equipment and an "official" tuner contribute to the betterment of the band. Such projects necessitate fund raising projects. Thus an opportunity to take inventory at Hudsons' was arranged and raised $500.

In any event, the band under the moderation of Brother McKenna and direction of Mr. James Collins proved itself to be a distinguished organization.

Student Council Proves Themselves Unsurpassed in Years Activities

The 1976-1977 Student Council could be described as spirited, determined and dynamic. President Paul Heinen, Secretary Ed O'Brien, Treasurer Paul LeFevre and Moderator Brother Koppes proved themselves an industrious oganization. Field Day '76, with the creative additions of theme shirts and obstacle course was proclaimed by all to be the best field day ever. Always in tune with the students needs, the Student Council of 76-77 had music piped into the cafeteria lunch mods for their listening pleasure. Showing that student council is not just a hollow, powerless institution, this year's student council initiated the long awaited Junior off-campus privilege, relieving the congested library and cafeteria situation. Also new this year to the student council was the renovated pep shop, now the Executive Council room, which has proven valuable for conferences throughout the year. The girl cheerleaders was also a new program passed by the student council. The 1976-1977 Student Council is a definite reflection of the spirited, determined and dynamic class it comes from, as seen in its constant effort to represent and to improve the school in any way possible.

An often forgotten sport here at Br. Rice, buried among the football and basketball, is debate. In the past years debate at Rice has been somewhat of an underdog. But, with the arrival of Coach Gerald Bluhm, their performance has drastically improved. His outstanding coaching has guided the talented debators toward high levels of achievement.

The Varsity team led by Greg Bousquette, with support from David Pietrowski, Kieran Mullen, and Chris Maben ended the season with a 6-0 district record. The Grand Finale of the season was when the team qualified for the quarter-finals in the State Tournament, finishing off with a ranking of eighth in the state. The Novice team accomplished a second ranking in the Detroit Catholic Forensic League and managed an eighteenth ranking in the State Finals.

Throughout the season the debators achieved individual awards. Senior Chris Maben qualified for the John S. Knight Scholarship debate tournament. Ranking him among the top 42 out of 8,000 senior debators in the state. Sophomore Greg Bousquette and Kieran Mullen qualified for the Catholic Nationals in Milwaukee, by demonstrating outstanding speaking ability and endless hours of research.

The Brother Rice Debate team, best in its history, has proven itself as an outstanding competitive sport in the school.

National Honor Society Aids Academic Progress

Under the guidance of moderator Br. Shannon, the principle goals of the 1976-77 National Honor Society centered around tutoring and community service.

Directed on the student level by Senior President Chris Maben and Junior Vice-President Mike Mead, the major responsibility of the active members focused on tutoring underclassmen in an effort to eliminate academic failure.

Members actively supported Pro-Life and other programs in the community through distribution of Lifespan information and other materials. The students also assisted at numerous school functions, ranging in nature from tour guides at the Mother's Club Luncheon to school representatives at high school orientation programs, held at local grades schools.

'Once Upon A Mattress' Proves To be No Sleeper

This year's Rice-Marian production of the story-book musical "Once Upon A Mattress" proved once again that creativity and performing talents are also a dynamic yearly experience. This fact radiated from every sold out performance.

This year's production, as in the past two years, was directed and designed by Brother Dogan who along with several of his colleagues from Marian guided and inevitably gave this musical its unique Rice-Marian flavor and flair.

While "Mattress" wasn't the usual big name broadway show choosen as in the past, the droll characterisations, the elaborate costuming, and the clever settings more than made up for the play's brevity.

While this year's cast consisted primarily of rookies as far as previous experience went, they portrayed the comical and royal types needed to enhance this old Hans Christian Andersen tale with the style and song.

This minstral's tale filled with a bizarre "medieval" dance, a bumbling Wizard and pantomine ballet combined into this year's theatrical extravaganza, the usual sparkling evening of entertainment.

Co-eds Add Dimension To Cheerleading Squad

This year an old tradition was revived, GIRL cheerleaders! Last seen way back in '65, they returned this year after nearly a twelve year absence from the squad. Reinstating this tradition was not an easy task. The crusade was led by senior Mark Sedik and backed by moderator Br. Chang.

The idea of re-adding girls to the squad was met with doubt by many. Even the Student Council did not get involved with the issue. Finally after much debate, the co-ed cheerleaders were approved. Auditions were held and practice began right away. The squad was ready just in time for the basketball season.

Opening with smart routines and new uniforms, the co-ed cheerleaders were well received. Surely the new co-ed cheerleading squad is a welcome addition to the total picture at Brother Rice.

Fervent Flags Promote a Patriotic Air in Activities

An often taken for granted fixture at both basketball and football games is the Honor Guard. The group organized by Mr. Murphy and led by senior Ed McGough adds a touch of dignity to the introduction of the games by presenting the flags during the National Anthem. The flag-bearing quintet performs with the band at parades as well as half-time shows during football season. The company of flag-bearers has developed quality and precision over the past few years and has become a worthwhile organization adding pomp and pizzaz to the athletic competition.

Industrious Mother's Club Is An Enthusiastic Force at Rice

One of the most enthusiastic organizations in the Rice family is the Mother's Club. They are a dynamic social and fund raising group of women.

Starting off the school year with a hospitality luncheon for the mothers of incoming freshmen, they continue throughout the year keeping busy engaged in numerous activities. The '76-'77 Mother's Club Raffle was the most successful in years. A 1977 Ford Pinto was awarded as grand prize, with a C.B. radio, a tennis membership, and other great prizes also presented. Students who sold a certain quota of tickets won weekly and homeroom prizes. This seemed to provide an extra incentive which made this raffle such a success. Another fund-raiser is their St. Patricks Day Luncheon. The money earned from this effort is used for a scholarship fund to send students to Georgetown University. The money raised from other efforts is used for maintenance of the school and monastery. In addition to this, they also purchase Audio-Visual equipment when something needs to be replaced or added.

Supplementing the fund-raisers, there are also activities to get the parents together. There was the Dinner Dance at The D.A.C. in February. The last event of the year was the May luncheon before school was dismissed.

Without a doubt the Mother's Club is invaluable to Br. Rice, because of their contributions to the school.

Dad's Club Draws On Experience and Talent To Improve Facilities

The Father's Club is an important element in the total picture at Brother Rice. They sponsor many activities here. The Father-Son Communion Breakfast, a father's retreat, and an all-school picnic are just a few.

The Father's Club Board serves as an advisory council for Br. Morrison. The leaders of this year's board are: Dr. Gerald Dietz (President), Mr. Marty Brennan (Vice President), Mr. Dan McNulty (Treasurer), Mr. Don Byerlein (Recording Secretary), Mr. William J. Hayes (Corresponding Secretary).

The Father's fund many worthwhile causes such as scholarships for needy students and financing for nine of our students to travel to the National U.N. in Washington, D.C.

They are also involved in several functions at school. The Dad's play a big part in the running of Bingo on Wednesday nights. The Father's Club also helps out at the basketball and football games, directing the crowds and the cars.

The Father's Club is a very valuable organization, which is a key factor in smoothly running the school.

Patience, Stamina Pays off with Impressive Second in Race for Division Title

When going to a track meet, one can see the intense concentration revealed in the actions and expressions of all the competitors. All the weeks of discipline and training, both physical and mental, have come to this point.

All the pain and sweat mixed in with the accompanying dedication all boils down to the next moment.

It's done, it can't be changed. Any one spectator can feel the rosin on the grip of the pole before the jump, the weight of the shot before it is heaved, the firmness of the blocks on the moment of the gun.

Nothing on earth can help the athlete now, he's beyond the point of no return. The only thing that determines the outcome of the race is the mental determination and more importantly, physical ability.

The 1976 Varsity Track Team, along with coaches Stark and Popson were prepared to meet the opponents but they were prepared too. Rice placed second in the Division, with Paul Manza 5th in the state in the two mile.

Inexperience of Players Brings Mediocre Season

This year's Varsity Racketeers started the season very slowly. They lost their first five matches but then won eight out of the next ten matches.

The 1976 Varsity Tennis Team had only four returning lettermen out of last year's thirteen players.

The Racketeers were never shut out this year; but on the other hand, they shut out De La Salle, St. Andrew, Bishop Gallagher, and Aquinas seven to nothing.

Junior Pete Fredericks had an incredible fifteen and two record. Following closely behind him were David Hainline and Blase Keating, both with a twelve and four win-loss record.

There were a few changes in the rules this year. They played all league teams once instead of twice. Also, the MHSAA determined that March 1st should be the starting date for official practices and they allowed a total of only eighteen matches.

The weather this year was also a very pertinent factor. It was extremely windy and very cool in the spring, lousy tennis weather.

With the resources which we are planning on for next year, plus the raw, undeveloped talent all under the leadership of Coach McKercher, the future looks good.

Thru Leadership of Experienced Players Warriors Conquer the Division Title

With the beginning of spring this year came the start of spring practice for the baseball team. With the title of Catholic League Champions under their belt, the players were expecting another good year. Under the pitching ability of Mark Kochanski and Jim Milford, the field ability of Mike Cullen, and the batting powers of Mike Jamieson and Mike Cullen, the team set out.

With a perfect league record, they went into the finals with hopes of retaining their title.

With Rice's star pitcher Mark Kochanski on the mound, Coach Fracassa in the dugout, the Warriors were defeated by Aquinas, 6 to 1, in a tough struggle to retain the title.

New, Old Faces Make A Good Season

The 1976 Varsity Linksters under the direction of their new coach Br. Shannon and through the leadership of returning lettermen Tim Beale, Mike Roach, Mike Hayes, Kevin Lynch and Joe Hanzel started the season on a bad foot with the loss of Coach Br. Wielatz.

This can easily be proven with a look at their eight and two win-loss record for league play and their fourteen and three over all record.

In the race for the Central Division Championship, they were tied. Their play was so noteworthy and effective that it qualified them for the State Regionals in which they played second. Their win-loss record provided them with the title of 11th in the State.

Harriers Uphold Their Tradition of Excellence With a Sucessful Season

The grueling summer months of practice once again paid off for this year's Crosss Country team. A perfect 5-0 record gave the Harriers both the Catholic League and the Central Division Championships. Coach Bob Stark's personal record was increased to 81-12 giving him the title; "Most Winningest Coach in Rice History."

Although the team ended up a disappointing 19th in the state championship, their impressive finishes in the Holly, Jackson, Lakeland, and Oakland County Invitationals showed what a fine team they are. These successes were accomplished partly by the teamwork of backbone members Mike Chiodo, Pete Crowe, Tom Joliat, and the potential excellence of underclass runners Steve Bergman and Tom Roth, but when it comes to the sport of running there will always be those whose efforts are rewarded. Among these were seniors Sam Morgan, Kevin Deighan (co-capt.), Dan Sandon (co-capt.), and juniors Scott Burry, Gary Klezek, and Pete Byerlein each of whom attained All-Catholic and All-Central Division honors.

Able Talent Overshadows Unimpressive Season

Time, the Warriors learned this year, must be used wisely. When asked about the team's three losses, Coach Albert Fracassa said, "We didn't lose, the clock just ran out."

This year's offensive squad was led by Tri-Capt. Jim Wilberding's excellent running ability and underclass quarterbacks Bill Prieb and Jon English. Although a good backfield is absolutely necessary, a victory is impossible to obtain without a defensive unit, and so was Rice's this year.

Led by Tri-Capts. Steve Arkwright and Kevin Haffey the Warrior's defensive line, featuring Lou Basso and Dennis Ruen and its pass coverage in Greg Morris and Joe Hart proved almost unbeatable.

The extraordinary amount of underclassmen in the ranks of the Warriors this year including the powerful running of Soph. John Baranska, show the potential for a great team next year, but as on most varsity teams it was the unrelenting Senior spirit that held everything together even in the face of defeat.

The Warriors five and three record, though not as impressive as previous years had been, was a great personal achievement for Coach Fracassa. This year's game against Bishop Gallagher, the last of the season, proved to be Coach Fracassa's 100th victory as a high school coach.

Underclassmen Insured of Promising Future

Though overshadowed by previous years exceptionally strong finish, the Keglers met their challenge by placing a close second in the Boy's Catholic League. Tom Langan, the team's captain maintained a 189 average and held the league high game title with an unbelievable 279. Although their captain remains a standout, seniors Randy Hack, Bill Froling, and Chris Gayde along with junior Mike Burns formed a solid backbone with consistent performances.

The Junior Varsity squad had some trouble at the beginning of the season but quickly recovered and also second for the overall title. Juniors Anmar Sarafa and Chuck Klucka led the reserves followed by promising young freshmen Bob Brown and Kevin Laclede. This year all meets were rolled off at varsity bowler Bill Froling's own father's lanes giving the Keglers the advantage of home team at every match. Adapting to new lanes took awhile but spirits are high for next year.

Youth Is Contributing Factor to Hockey Succes

The 1977 Warrior hockey season was one of the most exciting seasons Rice has had in its short four year history. The pucksters were led by a well balanced group of forwards consisting of seniors Gregg Fisher, Brad Cowderey, and Ray Ebbing. The exceptionally talented defense consisted of senior standouts Jim Veraldi, Paul Mansky, and junior Scott Kluge. The Warriors dominated the second division of the metro high school hockey league, and also showed the league that they could give any first division team a run for their money, as they defeated school rival Catholic Central 4-3. The captains this year were seniors Gregg Fisher, Mike Schiefer and Ray Ebbing. Although the Warriors were not as physical as in past years, they beat their opponents with a lightning fast offense and some determined hustle. Gregg Fisher is currently leading the Warriors in scoring with 30 points. Overall, the Warriors were a very young team and are looking very optimistic for seasons to come.

Coach Jim Wartchow was very pleased with this year's success. He attributes this to the immense balance of his three high scoring lines, and the players fantastic ability to work as a team and not a group of individuals. Mr. Wartchow stated that although a few individuals were standouts, his "team" was a real "team", and he hopes that this characteristic continues in future years.

Runner-up in State Tournament Proves Ability

This year's basketball season was an exciting as any here at Brother Rice. The Warriors started the long winter with a surprising loss to Grand Rapids Cresent after a four game winning streak. They then chalked up victory after victory, even defeating arch-rival and number 2 ranked Catholic Central in overtime. With the state tournament drawing nearer and nearer, the team's performance reached a climax.

All-American senior Kevin Smith led the Warriors, along with co-captains Tim Schearer and Brian Burgess, into the tournament with huge amounts of enthusiasm. Our first gage in the tournament was against Pontiac Central. Although heavily underdogged the Warriors surprised Central with a 62-54 win in overtime. Next they met the much praised Shamrocks of Catholic Central. Again heavily underdogged, the Warriors pulled it out with a 65-63 victory. The story ends here as Rice fell to Lansing Everett in overtime for the state Class "A" title. The Runner-up finish, although very impressive, disappointed all of the team members. The fantastic Warrior underclass potential however have their eyes set on that Class "A" Championship in the 1977-78 season.

Experience, Skill, Spirit Promotes Winning Season

Along with Old Man Winters Snow this year came a new student teacher and ski team coach, Mr. Hetherington. Adaptation always seems to take a while and as a result the teams first two meets ended up in losses, but from then on it was all "uphill". Hetherington's "fabulous four", Ralph Gonzalez, Steve Parks, Tom Pulte, and Tom Stenger led the team to four consecutive sweeping victories, and in time to come within one place of Division overall champs. A few weeks later they proved their true rank by a hands down victory in the Division Meet Championships. Underclassmen Mike Hall and Tim Shea provided the depth needed on any team and along with Marian's inspiring "skiettes" on those cold winter nights, skiing's future here at Brother Rice looks very optimistic.

Talent and Enthusiasm Guide the Water Wonder Warriors to Victory

The Water Wonder Warriors were certainly wonders in the water this year after coming in with a host of awards. Coaching this amazing team is the dynamic Mr. George O'Brien, a dedicated and persevering coach. With enthusiastic swimmers willing to churn up waves during practices and a hard-working coach, the W. W.W.'s couldn't help but make a winning team.

Here is a list of their impressive wins during the season. They were winners of the East Detroit Relays; Sixth Place Oakland County Championship: Eighth Place State High School "Class A" Swim Championships; and The 1977 Catholic League Champions.

Many individuals on the team were also cited for their outstanding abilities. Six (6) swimmers were All League award winners, six (6) All State award winners and Two (2) All-American Nominees. Also Mr. O'Brien was awarded for his efforts, winning the Oakland County Coach of the Year award.

Without the "Monster Maggots" Brother Rice would be lacking in something unique to the school. They add a spirit which involves the whole school.

Because of the problem of the Freshman students not knowing each other well enough to elect six people to lead their class, a new system was divised.

Each Freshman who wished to serve on the student council was required to collect 40 signatures of fellow classmates. From these, six would be picked for each meeting to act as voting councilmen. The voting privilege would be rotated so that each member of their group (called the Freshman Forum) would have equal opportunity to participate in the student governing organization in the school.

Another benefit of this system is that any freshman who has an interest in the council will be given a chance to find out what it's like and decide whether or not he wishes to run for office in the future.

The class of 1979 has retained their reputation of nonconformity and high spirit.

The Student Council is run by Seniors but the Sophomores refuse to be supressed. When they want to be heard, they'll let you know, and do so quite often (many times they even have something to say).

Their love for using their mouths was also displayed at field-day, when they out-yelled the Juniors for a second place decision in the cheering contest. They also took an easy second in the skit competition, losing only to the seniors in a close race. This rowdy class took a clean second in the final standings of Field-Day '76.

As Freshmen, the class of '79 sponsored a never-before-attempted semi-formal dance, and this year broke another tradition by taking the soph-semi to the Sheraton Inn.

With three years of high school experience behind them, the class of 1978 progresses into their final year of preparation for college. These three years have been memorable ones, while many valuable lessons were learned.

Their junior year has been marked with many high points. Headed by a strong class board, this class has shown great strength in student council and school affairs demonstrating that the Seniors do not completely run the school.

One of the major accomplishments was achieving the right for juniors to leave campus during the school day.

Through their experience this year, the Class of '78 has shown that they are prepared to accept the responsibilities of being the leaders of the upcoming year.

STUDENT LIFE

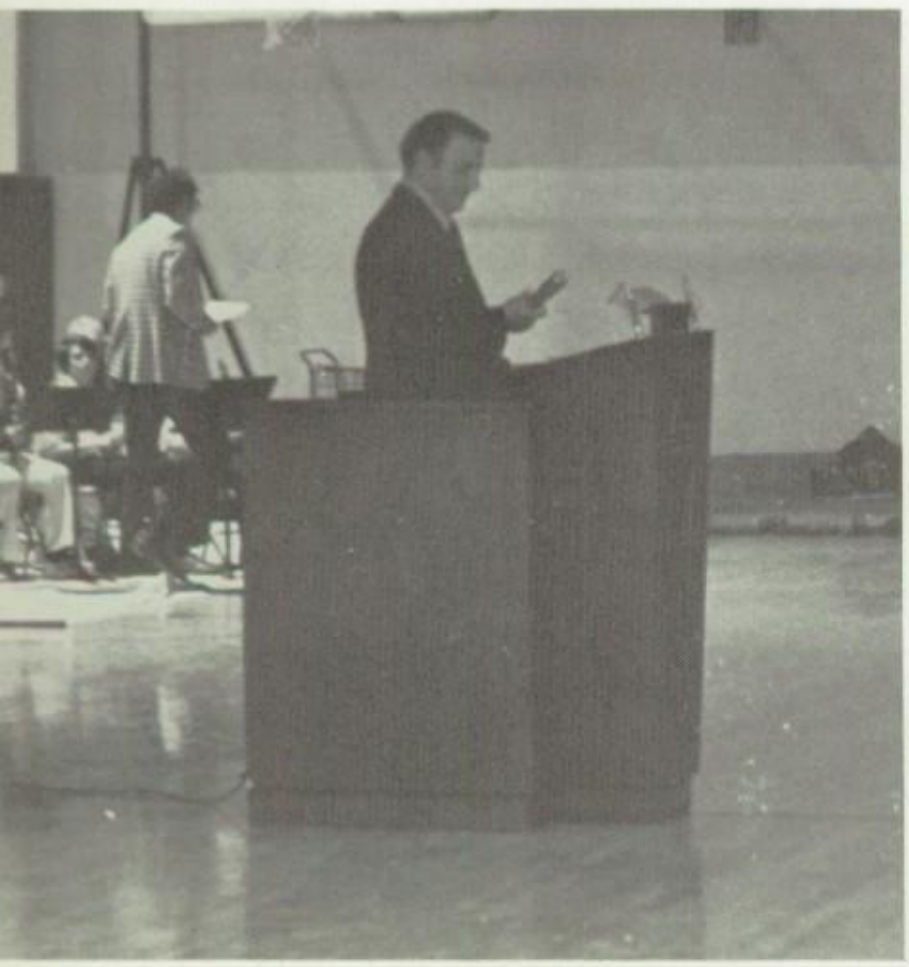
Various Groups, Organizations Complete the Scene at School Assemblies

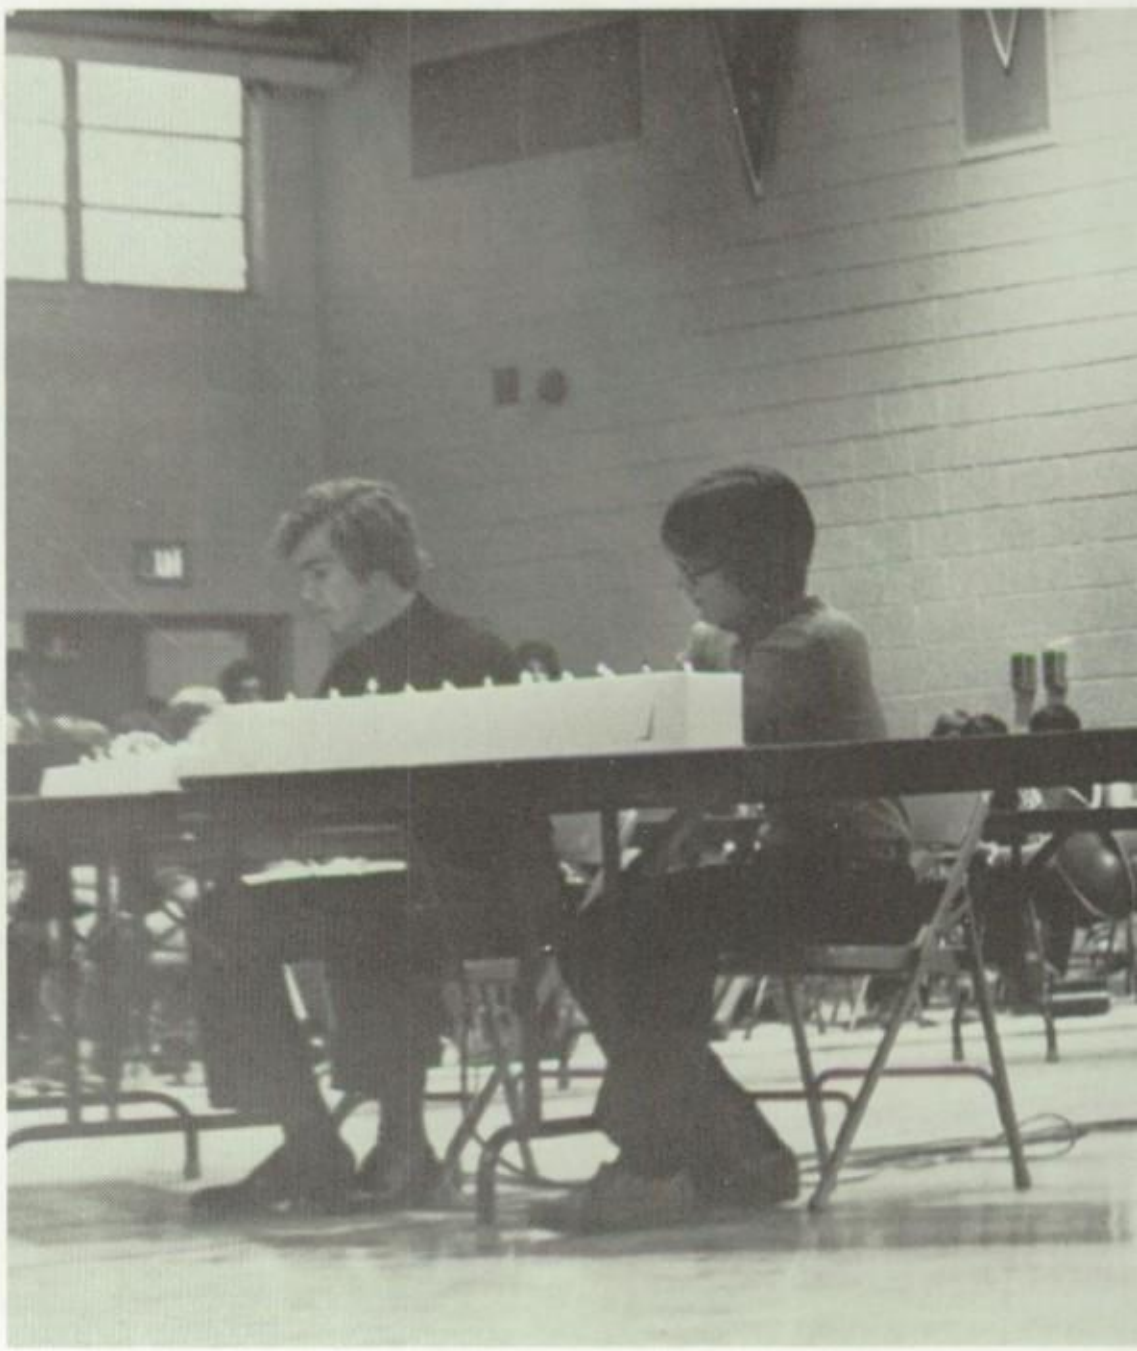
The assembly is one solution to the dilemna of organizing a mass of students to exchange ideas regarding school activities and upcoming events at various times throughout the school year. Whether it's an orientation talk in August or a pep rally in mid-December, assemblies aid in class unity and spirit.

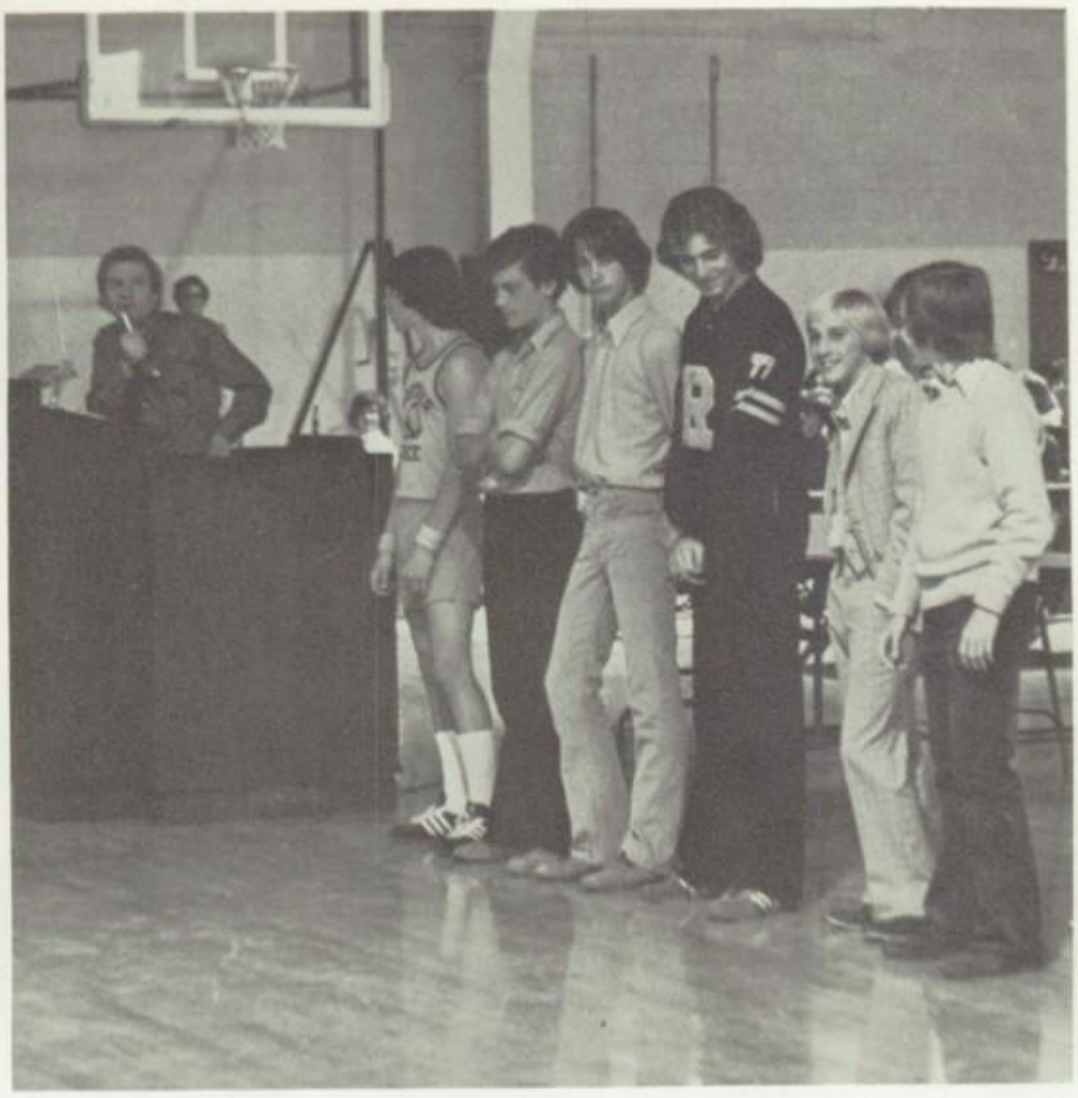
Although the Friday afternoon pep rallies were not as common as previous years, the "Pep Club" worked hard in producing creative spirit posters, while the "Koppes Clique" handled assembly details.

Certainly, the school assembly is the culmination of all parts of student life. All types of groups are represented — the pep club, band, cheerleaders, faculty, sports, and most especially, the dynamic and spirited student body.

Assemblies provide enlightenment, as well as developing cooperation, thus resulting in being very positive events.







OPPOSITE PAGE: *Above, During an unusual multi-media assembly, a game of "To Tell the Truth" revealed the true "Milton". Guards Up, Tempers Fly In heated U.N. Debates

Intense discussion and heated debate characterized Marian's 1977 Model United Nations. Approximately ninety countries were represented by various delegations of three to four members each. Delegates attended Bloc and Committee meetings to plan their strategy and debate on world issues of current importance. The bills which were passed in committee then proceeded to the General Assembly, which in many cases, tempers flared and arguments boiled over.

The Secretariat consisted of Chris Mabon, Jeanne Heinen, and Mary Rourke. Major Delegations were the U.S.S.R. and France. In addition, Major Speaker awards were given to delegates Matt Bousquette, Greg Bousquette, Mike Smith, Paul Heinen, Kiernan Mullen and Jim Crowe. These speakers were then chosen to represent Brother Rice in a N.A.I.M.U.N. delegation in March.

Intramurals Provide Competitive Opportunities For All Students Involved

The intramural sports program at Rice has been successful for many years. This year is no exception. Over 450 students have been active in various intramural sports ranging from flag football in September to the termination of the volleyball season in early May. Besides the typical sports of bowling, basketball, football and volleyball, the list has grown to include raquetball and hockey as well.

Intramural leagues are usually divided into three to four sub-divisions corresponding to the different classes and their overall ability. The brothers and lay faculty had a hand in the competition as always. In bowling they're known as the "Leaky Joints", and in basketball, the "Faculty Five".

Most students agree that the intramural program has been both competitive and enjoyable. It will remain as a successful outlet of enthusiasm for the Rice student in years to come.

Avid Spirit Overrides Dismal Boy's Bowl Loss

Although the soft drizzle during this year's Boys' Bowl game did not yield a success, Homecoming weekend was not a wash-out by any means. Rice spirit prevailed, even in the worst of conditions.

The unity and spirit generated on Field Day was limitless. Aside from the usual games and activities, theme shirts provided better class unity. A trophy given to the winning class added incentive to the efforts of school enthusiasts. This year, the Seniors were the winning class, followed by the Sophomores, Juniors, and Freshmen. Ed O'Brien, Field Day chairman, worked diligently to make it a most delightful day.

On Saturday, roadsters rallied in the hockey team's annual event. Winners were Steve Laclede, Ken Pienta, Dan Barron, and Chris Gayde.

While confused road rally participants were busily deciphering, float builders also had their share of problems, fighting off the weather and completing construction on time. This year, the Juniors won the float competition. Their motto, "Rice Rules the C's" appeared on the side of a viking ship.

An attendance of approximately 400 couples took part in the Homecoming dance on Sunday evening. Providing entertainment was the talented "Holden Caulfield" band. Responsible for the arrangements was a hard-working dance chairman, Tom McCleary. The imaginative use of a mirror ball and balloons helped in making it a memorable occasion.

Talent Excitement, Involvement...

Rice-Marian Weekend

It would be doing an injustice to describe the Rice-Marian weekend this year as simply fantastic or very successful. In reality, it was a flurry of refined talent, tantalizing excitement, and over-all student involvement.

On Thursday, the anual Quiz-Em was held, in addition to the faculty volleyball game. Rice found itself victor in both events. The weekend took on a relaxing mood with Friday night's presentation of the fashion show, followed by films of Bill Ellison's "Batman" and the rock opera "Tommy". On Saturday night, eyes turned toward Marian as dancers enjoyed the rock music of "Shelter". Finally, a Sunday night performance featuring a wide spectrum of talent was enough to make the entire weekend a pleasant success.

Needs Satisfied Through Monetary Aid of Senior Jobs

Whether it's preparing hamburgers at a nearby McDonald's, working a cash register in a pharmacy, or taking inventory for a department store, part-time employment improves financial status to take care of added expenses encountered by Seniors.

The task of attending everyday classes along with working after school may become somewhat hectic. At times, however, this chaotic schedule is essential in fulfilling all types of needs — Senior proms, dates, cars, and present and future tuition. And college is right around the corner.

Seniors Add a 'Touch of Class' to Student Body

What better theme for their field day than "A Touch of Class". The Class of 1977 will leave Brother Rice with many pleasant memories of pride and unity which typify their classes' characteristics. The 244 students full of various qualities have brought acclaim to the institution at 7101 Lahser Road.

The graduates have matured from the adolescent freshman stage, to the responsible senior level. In between these two stages many changes have occurred within themselves. Besides outward appearance, they have grown to become men who are are capable of making their own decisions. They no longer will depend on their parents to make their choices for them. Instead they have learned to become independent and help themselves while still caring for others.

Over the four years the class has been one of the "rowdiest" classes ever to attend Rice. In their latest field day the Seniors unified and ran away with the contest. They showed that their organization an spirit can be directed in a positive-disciplined direction. They swept all the events except two in which they placed. In the previous field day they posed a threat right up until the final tally, which they lost only by a few points. Their floats have been tremendous, but due to bad weather their final entry was unable to make it to the stadium.

Academically, the class is outstanding. The Seniors have five students with perfect grade point averages. Eighteen of the students received the Phi Beta Kappa award, while five were National Merit Scholarship Winners.

Athletically, the class had been a part of two State Championship teams. Individual recipients gained All Area, All League, All State and even All American honors. The Seniors have captained the '76-'77 teams and have brought many respectable achievements back to the halls of the school.

The best thing they can share with others is part of themselves. From the spirit and attitudes generated by the Rice institution, the Class of 1977 will bring only the best .

Co-op Programs Broadens Senior Opportunities

It had become increasingly evident that students in a traditional school program are forfeiting many other educational opportunities. The program was designed to make use of other resources within the community in order to supplement the classroom approach. It also intended to help each student determine his occupational interests and capabilities.

The program is open to all seniors at Rice that have a grade of "C" or better and have no more than 8 absences or lates. Each student kept a daily journal in which he recorded his experience. One of the major objectives of the program was to have the students go out into a business type world and to interact with new people. The major responsibility of securing a sponsor was within the student.

At the end of the program, each student submitted a typewritten evaluation which summarized the students accomplishments, problems, and also evaluates the Senior Experience Program.

The program evolved in the 1975-76 school year with student council president Bill Gillette. Bill's research was very well done and the information was turned over to Br. Koppes, The Director of Student Activities, who finalized work on the program and organized it for this year's seniors. The program looks promising for the future and will educate the seniors about the business world around them.

Four Years' Memories, Momentos Will Last Lifetime for All Seniors

Four years of dedication, laziness, hardwork, relaxing, studying, friendships, shared and learned experiences, and much more, are all a part of the Class of 1977's Menageries, which climax at Ford Auditorium on May 22. At this momentous occasion 245 seniors received their diplomas, symbolizing their high academic, religious, moral, and social achievements. The ideals exemplified by the faculty during the seniors' four year stay, will remain with them throughout the rest of their lives, affecting not only themselves, but also the society, which they are now prepared to enter into.

MODERN YEARBOOK Company

The pictures recorded here are merely two dimensional images. The third dimension of their meaning must be added by your own memory.

Our purpose has been to record in photographic highlights of the 1977 school year - images of victory and defeat, trial and error, jubilation and tribulation. But these highlights are only fragments in a futile attempt to preserve a frozen space in time. Unfortunately the staff was plagued with inexperience from the beginning. Do to the efforts of numerous hard working staff members, this yearbook will be remembered in the future as one of the best. On behalf of the entire staff, I wish to thank Modern Yearbook, and Pieronek Studios for their valuable assistance. Without the help of our excellent moderator, Br. Dogan, this book would never have been a reality.
